Acts 19:1-7

January 10—Baptism of Our Lord

Sermon Title: "Step 1, Step 2"

Scripture: Acts 19:1-7 (CEB)

Have you ever assembled a swing set or a piece of furniture? Did you follow the instructions, or did you strike out on your own using intuition? I think my intuition is pretty good, so I have experience assembling some things (sans instructions) only to discover that I must disassemble a section because I got ahead of myself!

Is the Christian faith a step 1, step 2 process? Are there truly basics that must be realized before true faith in Christ can be claimed? It seems, in our text today, that some disciples were missing key parts of the faith. What does that look like? Can that happen to us? Come and see this Sunday!
