March 7 — 3rd Sunday in Lent
 Sermon Title: “Again & Again —
 We Are Shown the Way”
 Scripture: John 2:13-22 (CEB)

I think you know by now the logo for this series with the “&” as the focus. But this week, look at this symbol – the Sankofa. A mythical bird reaching back to retrieve an egg from its back, used by the Akan people of Ghana. It represents the wisdom of carrying wisdom gleaned from the past into the future. Paul says we preach the foolishness of the Cross because it is the wisdom (the way, the path) of God. Again, & again – God shows us the way in the life Jesus lived out before us. This week, early on in John’s gospel, Jesus acts with passion. Where is OUR passion? It’s not wrong to re-access, to go back to get what you need before you move forward. Taking inventory of our life, where have we let other values encroach upon our spiritual identity? Do we welcome the Savior’s authority, even if it upends everything around us? Let us explore this together this Sunday.

Trustees will have an outside work day on Saturday, March 13, 9:00-12:00. If you have yard tools, bring them. All help is appreciated!
