September 5 — 15th Sunday after Pentecost in Kingdomtide
Sermon Title: "I'll Do Anything"
Scripture: Mark 7:24-37

Mark called her the Syrophenician Woman (A Phoenician from Syria) – a well-to-do commercial title, Matthew called her a Canaanite Woman (a religious title). Therefore, she had three strikes against her #1 she was a woman in a male culture, #2 she was from the "wealthy part of town" when the Jews saw themselves as the poor, and #3 she was not even of the Jewish faith – a pagan. However, this woman's humility and great love for her daughter put her in a position to do anything for love. She had such faith that Jesus could heal her child that she crossed economic, racial, and religious boundaries to get what she wanted – at the cost of her own humiliation! "Gut Check!" - What do you want so badly that you'll do anything to get it? Does our relationship with God ever come close to that level of need in our lives?
