Where You go I'll go...

Ruth 1:14-19

October 31 — 23rd Sunday after Pentecost
in Kingdomtide — All Saints Sunday
Service of Holy Communion
Sermon Title: "Where You Go, I'll Go"
Scripture: Ruth 1:14-19 (CEB)

I always think back to the scene in "Fried Green Tomatoes" where this message is delivered: "Where you go, I'll go..." a quote from this text. It was one woman's plea for rescue from an abusive situation. Ruth's commitment is to a people and their God – our God. Clergy commit to that kind of service – we will go where we are appointed, and that church will be our people. I don't believe we are in a place by chance – even if we are born into this place – we have a purpose. What purpose has God put Bascomb to doing?
