"The Victim and the Volcano"

Hebrews 9:24-28

November 14 — 25th Sunday after Pentecost
in Kingdomtide

Sermon Title: "The Victim and the Volcano"
Scripture: Hebrews 9:24-28

How do we "pay back" someone we've wronged — Money? Service? Suffering? The judicial system still struggles to make "the punishment fit the crime." When the New Testament book of Hebrews speak of the atonement system within the Old Testament Jewish faith it may just seem "gross" to us — animal slaughter and blood. So, what do WE mean trying to "pay back" God — the bargains we try to strike and gain God's favor? Every time we try and "work off guilt" by all that we do for the church, we (sadly) transform it into a false mechanism for atonement. Such a mechanism can create apparently successful churches in terms of programs and labor. But the side effects can be lethal. How does God view atonement? Come, let us reason together.
