Fishing For People

Luke 5:1-11

February 6 — 5th Sunday after the Epiphany
Sermon Title: "Fishing for People"
Scripture: Luke 5:1-11 (CEB)

There's an old gospel song called "Throw Out the Lifeline." That's what Jesus means with the phrase "fish for people." Of course, unlike a catch of fish, we don't scale and gut when we fish for people. We are offering God's rescue net! The scriptures for these next few weeks don't always get used during Epiphany when the season is shorter than this year. It's a delight to encounter these "call" texts for this week. Peter is being called as the first disciple. Isaiah is called to deliver a prophet's word, Paul was being called late to be an apostle. Being saved is not just "from" something. We are being saved "to" something – the call is for us! Will we respond?
