REJECTED!

Psalm 118:1-2, 19-29

April 10 — Palm / Passion Sunday
Sermon Title: "Rejected"

Scripture: Psalm 118:1-2, 19-29

This Psalm declares that a "rejected stone" had become the cornerstone of our faith! Before we jump with both feet into our Christian interpretation on this text, just limit yourself to the text alone. The psalmist was not a Christian, but a Jew. So, what was this poet thinking? To whom was the message intended? We should always look at the original context as the launching pad for a full understanding. The text does indeed point to Jesus from our perspective, no doubt. But what we make of the text must never contradict the author's original meaning. So, let's go there first! Just who or what is rejected here?

GIVE ONLINE

Activities will include games, crafts, pictures with the Easter Bunny and egg hunt for infants—5th grade. For more information contact Jaime McLemore at kidsinpraise@bascombmc.org. There is a bin in the Narthex for candy donations.

If you haven't visited Bascomb Mission Thrift Store, you don't know what you're missing. We're giving you a chance to find out. We'll have some of our Easter items for sale in the Fellowship Hall on Sunday between services.
