Luke 24:44-53

May 29 — 7th Sunday of Easter

Ascension Sunday

Sermon Title: "In the Game"

Scripture: Luke 24:44-53

How do you best end a story? Well, first make a good beginning. I try to do that with sermon titles. I want you to imagine the content of the sermon because the title draws you into the narrative. So, what do I mean by "In the Game?" In the Game is a gospel concept. (I hope now you are very curious!) It's also important that we be able to identify with the characters in the title. Can you identify with a gospel character? Jesus is (body and all) taken up into heaven. But that is NOT the end of the gospel story, is it? Well, the title gives you a hint – WE are still "In the Game." We call these narratives "gospels" (evangelion in Greek) meaning "good news." But how is Jesus leaving us behind "good news?" Come, let us reason together this Sunday.

"You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and love your neighbor as yourself." – Luke 10:27 CEB

Dear Friends in Mission,

Thank you!

The dear people you just helped with your gift to UMCOR may never have the opportunity to meet you, but if they did, I am certain their response would be – Thank you!

Since 1940, UMCOR has served as the humanitarian agency of The United Methodist Church, providing disaster response and relief to areas impacted by natural and man-made disasters around the world. And through your financial support, you are serving within a vital network of interactive relationships as UMCOR responds to increasingly-frequent and destructive storms – sharing 100% of donated funds with those in need!

Together, may we continue to reveal the love of God for men, women, and children of all ethnic, racial, cultural, and national backgrounds and to demonstrate genuine love for our neighbors.

Grace and Peace,

Roland Fernandes, General Secretary
