Romans 5:1-5

DIARY of a Wimpy Christian

June 12 — 1st Sunday after Pentecost
Sermon Title: "Diary of a Wimpy Christian"
Scripture: Romans 5:1-5

Paul says, "we take pride in our problems!" Really Paul? I'm supposed to boast in my suffering. Well, we do say "that which does not kill us makes us stronger." But hey, some things just kill us! And what if I don't want to be stronger! I mean, NOT if it means suffering. Some of us think we should suffer all the time and choose to wear their suffering like a badge of honor. Yet, on this first Sunday after Pentecost, consider that our personal suffering is not the focus of Paul's argument here. Let's climb to the top of the mountain and seek a higher knowledge ... a higher call. How does suffering connect to love?
