April 2—Palm Sunday

“Jesus the Director” Matthew 21: 1-11

The great film director, Alfred Hitchcock, said this about directing movies, “To make a great film, you need three things— the script, the script, and the script.” Hitchcock must have known what he was talking about since he is still known as one of the film industry’s best directors of all time.

Our Scripture reading for Sunday is found in the Gospel of Matthew and is what we know as the Palm Sunday reading from that Gospel. If we look closely, we can see how Jesus was “directing” a couple of disciples in preparation for his entrance into Jerusalem. Jesus told the two unnamed disciples to go into the nearby village and to untie a donkey and her colt. They were to bring them back to him and if anyone says anything to the disciples about taking the two animals, they were to tell them that Jesus needed them and that he would return them.

Well, everything that Jesus told the two disciples ended up being true. Jesus’ “direction” to the disciples was spot on. And of course, from Jesus’ entrance into Jerusalem all the way to his eventual death on the cross on Golgotha, Jesus’ directing abilities could be seen with his disciples along with the women at the tomb on that first Easter morning.

I look forward to sharing all that Jesus directed starting this Sunday morning, then our Good Friday service, the evening of April 7th, then of course, our three services on Easter Sunday morning, April 9th. What a time it will be!
