But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

- 1 Peter 2:9 -

May 7—Holy Communion

“God’s Special Possession” - 1 Peter 2:2-10

“But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.”

(1 Peter 2:9-10)

Question for you, have you ever been in a situation whether it was a sports event, a game of trivia, or whatever else started with a group of people being divided into two teams. Each team had a team captain who would choose persons who they hoped would help their team win the game/event. If you were like me, you didn’t want to be chosen last; anywhere but NOT last.

There has been a longtime belief that the nation of Israel was “God’s chosen people” in the Old Testament. In our reading for this week, the author of First Peter wrote the words above for all believers (non-Jewish Gentiles) who had placed their faith and belief in Jesus of Nazareth as the Son of God. Those who believed were now “God’s chosen people.”

But Peter did not stop there! He also called the believers, “a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s special possession.” WOW! Peter really believed that all who believed were the best of the best because they had chosen to put their faith in Jesus as their Lord and Savior. The believers made the decision to be on Jesus’ team of “God’s chosen people.” No team captains were needed here!

Almost some 2,000 years later, those who have placed their faith in Christ in the past and present and who will in the future, will still be “God’s Chosen people.” And as before, no team captains needed because we are the ones who made the choice to accept Christ.
