"Heart Talk" - Matthew 16: 13-20

"Who do you say I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

What is the greatest answer you have ever given to a question you were asked? One of the first questions I thought of was the one from mine and Brenda's wedding. It was where the pastor asked if Brenda would have me to be her "wedded husband?" Thanks be to God she said she would. My life and ministry have never been the same.

So, what about your greatest answer? It might be related to your family, your career and occupation, maybe even your faith, where a pastor asked you if you believed in Jesus? And then hopefully, your greatest answer should have been saying "yes" to Jesus. For some in this world, their answer of saying "yes" to Jesus was probably easy. But what about the rest of the world?

Some already have their faith beliefs of their own. There are some who believe that putting their faith in Jesus doesn't make scientific sense. And there are others who won't "change" their ways of life because they like living their lives the way they want versus being told how to live their lives from some guy from 2,000 years ago. And the list of different reasons for not putting one's faith in Jesus goes on.

In our Scripture reading for this Sunday, Jesus asked Peter who he thought Jesus was. Peter's response was simple and yet so powerful. He used ten words to express who he believed Jesus was. Peter proclaimed that Jesus was his Savior (Messiah) and the Son of his living God. So simple yet so powerful. In this world and in the world to come.
