"Wake Up!" Romans 13: 8-14

Question for you, do you need something in the morning to help you wake up? A cup of coffee? A tall glass of sweet tea? Maybe a "caffeine pill" or something like that to get you up and going? For me, it is a 10 ounce can of "Starbucks Nitro Cold Brew with Sweet Cream."

Now my excuse for drinking them is that it saves me money and time in my morning. When I drink my Nitro Cold Brew, it physically wakes me up and it stops me from driving all the way down to the Starbucks either in Towne Lake or on Highway 92. At least, that's what I keep telling myself.

This Sunday, the Apostle Paul will remind us of our need to "wake up." Prior to our reading, Paul told the home churches in Rome that they were to be obedient to the Roman government and that they were to pay their taxes and any other monies due to them too. What a wakeup call that can be for us today!

Paul then follows that by telling the believers that they should not have any debts at all except for the non-stop debt of loving one another. To help prove Paul's point, he cited the Old Testament teaching, "Love your neighbor as yourself." Paul was telling the Roman churches that they need to love one another because when you love someone, you do not cause them any form of harm.

Paul then offers his "wakeup" call to the Romans so that they can recognize the evil that is around them. The Roman government had been in power for several hundred years and that there were some believers who had "fallen asleep" due to the status quo in and around Rome.

So, what does Paul's call to "wakeup" look like for us here today at Bascomb? Have we fallen asleep due to our status quo here and in the community around us? Looking forward to seeing everyone on Sunday morning.
