February 11, 2024—Transfiguration/Boy Scout Sunday
"A Mountaintop Experience" Mark 9: 2-9

Nine years ago this week, Brenda and I were in Israel with a group of pastors and their spouses. We spent 9 days seeing as much of Israel as we could during that time. It was a truly special trip where I was told that I had walked in some of the same places as Jesus did. The whole trip became one of the high points of my life both as pastor and as a follower of Christ.

This coming Sunday, we will close our season of Epiphany with Transfiguration Sunday based on Mark 9:2-9. This is where Jesus takes Simon Peter, James, and John up on the mountain top. While there, Jesus began to be transfigured with his appearance and clothes becoming a very bright white color. Then, Moses and Elijah appeared and began a conversation with Jesus.

Peter and the other two disciples were in shock and it was here that Peter told Jesus that the three of them would build a shelter for him, Moses, and Elijah. It's here that we're told Peter didn't know what he was saying because he was so afraid. And if that wasn't scary enough for the three disciples, something else happened.

A cloud enveloped all six of the men on the mountain and from within that cloud boomed a voice saying, "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!" God was speaking directly to the three disciples, telling them that they were to listen to Jesus. This had to be a high and holy moment for the disciples. God had spoke directly to them and told them to listen to Jesus.

Of course, there were many times that Peter, James, and John listened to Jesus. But there were some other times where they didn't listen to Jesus and of course, there was the time that all of the disciples abandoned Jesus after his arrest. In other words, the disciples had some highs and lows throughout their time with Jesus.

As a follower and believer of Jesus, we too will have some highs and lows in our lives. The thing we need to remember is to stay as close we can to the call that God has placed in all of our lives. God will provide for us what we need at any given time and will always be with us. That is God's promise for all of us.
