"Give me a Break"

In our world, mercy seems hard to find. Yet when it is received, how grateful are we for it? Maybe it seems like we are never shown mercy in any situation. I know that as I have grown older it seems like I just cant "get a break". When in reality, the breath in my lungs is mercy. Every new day is a blessing. Lets be honest, that sounds cheesy to a person who gets up and lives a mundane life. However, for a cancer survivor it is the epitome of Gods grace. Today we look at the story of Esther and the mercy the king showed to the Jews. We also look at the gratefulness they gave in return. Let us see how we can take this into our lives each and every day.

If you would like to donate a craft, decorated pumpkin, fall wreath, crocheted or knitted item, gift basket, or service, we would love it. If you are interested, contact Kathi Underwood (kathi@bascombpreschool.com or Whitney Gaeta, wseabolt@gmail.com). We will provide you with the guidelines.

Due date for the items to be submitted is Monday, October 7; bidding will start on Wednesday, October 9 at 9:00 a.m. and end on Wednesday, October 23 at 1:15 p.m.

Items will be ready to be sent home on Thursday, October 24 to be enjoyed not only this year but for years to come. Please join in this fun event! The preschool is raising funds to help offset the additional rubber mulch needed for the playground.
