"Healing through Hope"

This Sunday marks the beginning of advent. Advent is the active preparing of our hearts for the coming of Christmas. We practice traditions like lighting the advent candle in recognition of 4 different tenants: Hope, love, joy and peace. This time helps us to focus on the true meaning of Christmas and to keep us from getting distracted by all of the "stuff" that surrounds the holiday. We will also explore what it means to find healing through these different tenets. Today, I encourage you to find hope in your journey as we usher in the advent season.
