Psalm 146

“Welcome Home”

This Sunday is All Saints Sunday. We use this day to remember those who left their earthly lives for their life eternal. It always reminds me of those who have taken time to pour into me and help me become the person I am today. I carry a little piece of all who have taken me under their wing and led me down a righteous path. I encourage you to celebrate today your loved ones who helped make you the person you are today.
