"Second Epiphany"

Worship Committee needs help taking down all of the Christmas Decorations.

Please stay after the January 12th Sunday Service to help with this task. Please contact Brenda Crump for details. brendacrump@comcast.net

Epiphany traditionally celebrates the coming of the wisemen but this year we get to look at another "epiphany". When Jesus was baptized it broke open so many barriers in society as well as in the spiritual world. This man was now deemed to be the chosen one, the Messiah by God's stamp of approval. It makes me think of when we first discovered Christ. What made us turn our lives over to him? John Wesley describes this experience as his heart being "strangely warmed" and I wonder how we, through our lives, can help others experience this moment too.

Bible Study Lead by Rev. Tyler Flowers

Meeting dates are Thursdays
January 16th, 23th, 30th;
February 6th, and 13th.
1:30PM (Chapman Classroom) and 6:30PM (Big Room).
